

INFORMATION ON DOCTORAL THESIS

1. Full name: Lee Yung Lung

2. Gender: Male

3. Date of birth: 24/03/1978

4. Place of birth: Taiwan

5. Admission decision number: 4427/QĐ-SĐH date 25/12/2009 of President, Vietnam National University, Hanoi.

6. Changes in academic process: No

7. Official thesis title: Vietnam Political system from 1986 to now

8. Major: Politics

9. Code: 62 31 20 01

10. Supervisors:

(1) Prof. Dr. Do Quang Hung

(2) Asso.Prof .Dr. Vu Hoang Cong

11. Summary of the new findings of the thesis:

- To clarify the political system and political system reform theories of Vietnam.

- To make clear the roles and positions of Vietnam's Communist Party, the State of Socialist Republic of Vietnam, and other social – political organizations in Vietnam's political system.

- To explain the points of view, solutions, and results of political system reform in Vietnam from 1986 to now

- To enlighten the orientations, and resolutions to continue the political system reform for the period of 2011-2020 based on the point of view of Vietnam's Communist Party.

- To compare the political development between Vietnam and Taiwan, thus to point out the regularity issues in the development of nations.

12. Practical applicability: Reference for the study of political science teaching in Vietnam and Taiwan

13. Further research directions: Depth study in Vietnam Political system.

14. Thesis-related publications

- Lee Yung Lung (2011), "Development of new political face after Vietnam's Party Congress", South Review (14), pp.10-11.

- Lee Yung Lung, Ku Tang Yung (2011), "Research of Vietnam's Political Reform", Taiwan's development: globalization, regionalization, and legalization, Chuliu Publisher, Taipei, pp. 269-318.

- Lee Yung Lung (2012), "New Liberalism and Capacity of Building FTA between Vietnam and Thailand", Chinese Studies Review (2), pp.51-67.

- Lee Yung Lung (2012), "Ho Chi Minh Humanities Thought", Party History Review (8), pp. 20-24.